BASKETBALL SPECTATORS' CODE OF CONDUCT

In order to ensure that the principles of sportsmanship, fair play, skill development, and mutual respect among players, coaches, officials, and spectators are the primary considerations governing competition, the following Code of Conduct has been established.

Each SPECTATOR will ensure that his/her conduct sets the example for team members and spectators. To satisfactorily meet these responsibilities, the SPECTATOR is expected to:

1. Respect the rules of the game.
2. Respect the referees and refrain from questioning their decisions and from addressing them in a disrespectful or abusive manner.
3. Cheer for their team in a positive supportive manner, refraining at all times from making hostile, negative, or abusive remarks about the opposing team.
4. Refrain at all times from coming onto the basketball court, or from throwing objects or other foreign materials onto the field, and leaving the gym in an orderly manner at the conclusion of the game.
5. Follow all building rules and regulations, respecting at all times the property of others.
6. Demonstrate appropriate gestures of sportsmanship at the conclusion of a game, win or lose.
7. Realize, accept, and practice by the principle that a team's reputation is built not only on its playing ability but also on the sportsmanship courtesy and manner of its fans.

Spectators who fail to comply with the above code of conduct may be asked to leave the gym, and may be barred from attending any future basketball games. If a spectator is barred from attending games in any FHYAA sport, the ban may extend to attendance in other FHYAA sports.
